Theron named a True Reformer by NumbersUSA

Peter Theron, candidate for Wisconsin's Second Congressional District, was named a True Reformer by NumbersUSA, a leading voice in the immigration debate. On the NumbersUSA report card for the Second District race, he is the only True Reformer. Congresswoman Tammy Baldwin has an F-; Chad Lee's views are unknown.

Theron stated, "Legal immigrants are America's most precious imports. They obey our laws and arrive here legally. They are already Americans in their hearts because they know the importance we place on the rule of law. In contrast those who enter the US by climbing a fence or swimming a river break our laws immediately. As long as they do not have respect for our law in their hearts, they cannot be Americans. They will remain illegal aliens."

Theron continued, "For legal immigrants, assimilation is a burden gladly borne. They know the importance of learning English and following our laws and customs. For the illegal alien, assimilation is easily avoided. Too many in Washington do not appreciate our culture and shared heritage. They cheer the "Press One for English" multiculturalism that tears at our common heritage. They support sanctuary cities."

Theron concluded, "I am proud that NumbersUSA has named me a True Reformer. I call on the federal government to finish the border fence. I call on all levels of government to fully enforce our immigration laws. To the legal immigrant: Welcome. To the illegal alien: Leave."
