Theron response to CIRCUS permit denial

Peter Theron, candidate for Wisconsin's Second Congressional District, reacted today to the denial of his application for a Citizen-Initiated Rail-Corridor Use Study, CIRCUS.

Theron said, "I am disappointed that the Madison Street Use Staff Commission denied my permit application for a simulation to study the effect of proposed rail schedules on Madison traffic. Before we proceed with any passenger rail project, we need a study of its traffic impact. To raise awareness of this issue, I intend to have an informational picket at the Blair-Williamson intersection on August 27 from 4 to 6 pm."
